Peranakan Experience

(Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday (Except Public Holidays)

What does it mean to be a Peranakan? Heritage that combines the best of the Chinese and Malay cultures, the hybrid nature of the Peranakan has yielded enviable works of art in the realm of architecture, embroidery, beadwork and the culinary arts. Join us on a colourful journey into the history, lifestyle and unique character of the Peranakan people. The tour starts with a visit to Koon Seng Road/Joo Chiat, best known for its colourful rows of traditional Peranakan shophouses, dating back to the 1920s and 1930s, which line its narrow streets. The area is named after Chew Joo Chiat, a wealthy land and property owner who built shophouses and residential units on land he bought after World War I. Next, we will stop to see nonya chang demonstration.

This shop is famous with its homemade "Ba Chang" (Rice Dumpling) and other snacks such as Soon Kueh, Otak and Pineapple Tart. Tour continues with a stop at Katong, evokes a warm nostalgia, especially among the older generation of Singaporean. Katong has retained a hold on its past, reveling in its incredibly rich Peranakan and Eurasian heritage and architecture and soaking in its great charm.

* Please note that this tour will operate with a minimum of 08 passengers.
